2002 - 2007

I studied at Tudor Grange Solihull from 2002 – 2007 and went on to attend Solihull Sixth Form College to study Business Studies, Psychology, English and Health and Social Care for AS/A Levels.

This then led me onto attend Nottingham Trent University to study Business for my Degree, with a year out as an industrial placement.

My career has taken me to now work for Heineken as Senior Ecommerce Customer Manager.

Tudor Grange provided a fantastic grounding for learning, development, and developing my thirst for knowledge. Tudor Grange taught resilience and helped build my self-confidence which has helped me flourish throughout my career.

I am really enjoying working with the Alumni community to help the students of today navigate their career options.
