

German

Please complete one line from the task list below. All students must complete the middle task:

Annotate a map of Germany with key information about two Bundesländer and 5 different cities in German.	Prepare a 1 minute presentation in German on an aspect of your summer holidays.	Find a current news article from the German press that interests you. Read it and produce a written summary in English.
Research adjectival endings in German. Complete online exercises (see links below) to prove your enhanced understanding and produce a revision aid to demonstrate what you have learnt.	Write 300 words explaining your decision to study German.	Produce a timeline which contains all of the German tenses that you know. Your timeline should include examples and rules for formation of each tense.
Produce a detailed report in German of a famous German-speaking musician/band/politician/artist/scientist/author/director etc.	Watch a German TV programme – see the videos at http://www tivi.de/ Make notes on what you understand and new vocabulary you learn to share with the group.	Create a board game which could be used in class to revise the perfect tense.

Suggested book/reading list:

- D.Sauer, C. Schicker, K.Sydenham. E. Klingler: AQA German Year 1 (OUP, 2016).
- <http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/gcsebitesize/german> - revise and practise all the aspects of German grammar from your GCSE course.
- www.languagesonline.org.uk – grammar reference and practice
- www.wordreference.com – grammar and vocabulary reference
- www.dw.de : news, information and analysis of German and European topics alongside a section on learning German.
- <http://www.daserste.de> : As well as news, some of its most popular shows are Tatort, a crime series, Sandmännchen, a children's programme and soap operas including Lindenstraße .
- <http://www.zeit.de/> - a weekly German newspaper
- <http://www.dw.com> choose 'Learn German' from the top bar to find lots of resources including the daily news.