

LEARNING JOURNEY Art

Expressive Portraits

Year 10 Autumn Half Term Two

We begin a GCSE style project based on the 4 Assessment objectives. Half Term one will focus on skill building where we will explore technique and mark making with chalk and charcoal, mono printing, pencil, biro, Indian ink, watercolour and collage. This unit will include

Andy Butler extended personal responses

Exploring tonal value through pattern (inspired by Luke Dixon) Skull Experiments

Luke Dixon inspired self portrait

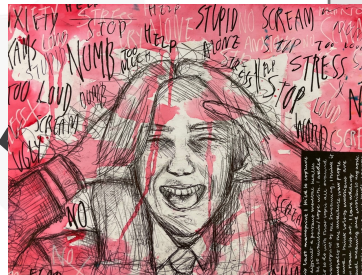

Lino printing workshop

Mono printing workshop

Personalisation of monoprints: mixed media

Dirt lesson responding to teacher feedback

TUDOR HABITS: You will be building resilience and perseverance through exploring a range of new skills, this format favours process over product and builds confidence in your personal navigation of the creative process.

VOCABULARY: Develop, technique, tone, pastiche, depth, intensity, layering, analysing, definition, detail, abstract, pattern, line, shape, vibrant, .