

LEARNING JOURNEY Music

AOS3: Film Music & AOS4 Set Work

This term you will be learning about Film Music, through analysis, performance and composition. You will learn about the various techniques used to score films, and learn about the process of composing leitmotifs and themes. You will then learn about your first set work piece, analysing the score, learning to play it on your own instrument, and consolidating your knowledge by completing real past paper questions and marked essays.

TUDOR HABITS
 You will demonstrate resilience by developing your score reading ability, show creativity and courage through the process of iterative composition.

VOCABULARY
