

LEARNING JOURNEY

Music

Musicals

Musicals are one of the most successful forms of entertainment in the world, employing tens of thousands of thousands of musicians, dancers, stagehands and singers in the UK alone. Musicals are often defined by their biggest songs, and we are going to learn why some songs are so successful. Film musicals are also an enormous part of movie history, and we will be exploring the differences between stage and screen to explore the role of a musical composer!

TUDOR HABITS
