

LEARNING JOURNEY Music

Songwriting

Songwriting is one of the most important jobs in the music industry. Whether a behind-the-scenes hit maker, or the ever popular singer-songwriter, these musicians shape popular music through their ingenious creations. You will be examining the musical and lyrical techniques of successful songwriters through history, as well as turning your hand to composition by composing a melody or rap to accompany an existing chord sequence or backing track.

TUDOR HABITS
 You will develop self regulation, develop your understanding of process not product, and build a courageous and gritty mindset.
