

LEARNING JOURNEY

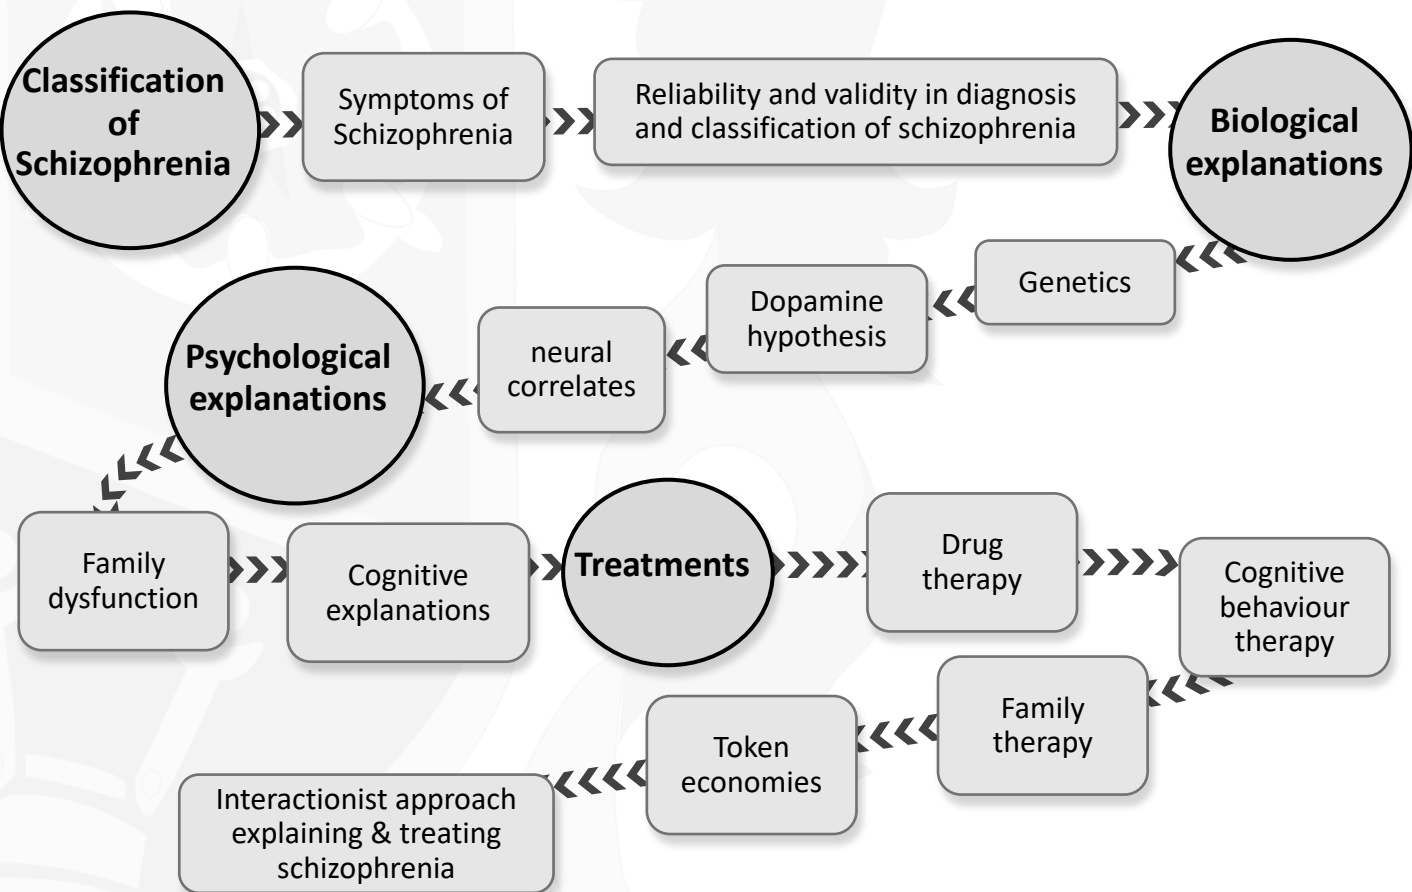

PSYCHOLOGY

Schizophrenia

Year 13 Autumn term

You will develop their understanding of the diagnosis, causes and treatment of Schizophrenia. Expanding your awareness of the problems with diagnosis of mental illness. Growing your empathy for mental illness through insight through biological and psychological explanations of the disorder, as well as how treatments may affect the individual.

TUDOR HABITS AND VALUES: You will advance your understanding of mental illness overall. Learning to better empathise with others on the whole, but specifically with those who suffer from mental health concerns like Schizophrenia.

VOCABULARY: Positive & negative symptoms, hallucinations, delusions. speech poverty, reliability, validity, diagnosis, classification, co-morbidity, bias, Dopamine, neural correlates, family dysfunction, dysfunctional thought processing, antipsychotics, CBT, diathesis-stress model, interactionalist.