

LEARNING JOURNEY

POLITICS

Summer Term

This unit will develop your knowledge and understanding of government in the UK, its institutions, their roles, powers and interrelationships with specific reference to the Executive, Legislative and Judicial functions of the UK system of governance. As well as this, you will be expected to study a further political ideology, including its core ideas and principles. In this case, this will be Feminism.

As part of this you will be developing your understanding of the political theory involved, but also develop a bank of up to date cases studies to exemplify what you have learned in relation to modern politics in the UK. This develops skills which would be beneficial for a career as a political scientist or in law.

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT: Alongside your work investigating inequality, democracy and sovereignty, you will also develop your tolerance in engaging with the beliefs of others. You will explore reasoned views about ethical and controversial issues and be sensitive in the language you use.

VOCABULARY:
patriarchy,
Intersectionality,
Discrimination, reformist,
essentialism
