

Philosophy

Please complete one line from the task list below. All students must complete the middle task:

Using a map of the world and pictures of key philosophers, plot the development of Philosophy from Plato to the modern day.	Ask 10 peers or family members their views on at least 3 'Ultimate Questions' (google ultimate questions for ideas) and record their answers.	Write a newspaper article outlining why philosophical study is still relevant in the modern world.
Create a timeline of the history of Ethics from Thomas Aquinas to Immanuel Kant.	Write a letter to your Philosophy teachers, explaining your decision to take Philosophy A Level.	Research an a priori argument of your choice, and outline the sequence of the argument and explain the strengths of it as a logical argument.
Choose any philosopher and write an essay explaining their argument and your evaluation of it – what are its strengths and weaknesses?	Create a podcast explaining briefly the origins of Philosophy, including Plato, Aristotle, Aquinas, Augustine and Descartes.	Create a model that explains/represents what Philosophy is and its merits.
