

LEARNING JOURNEY

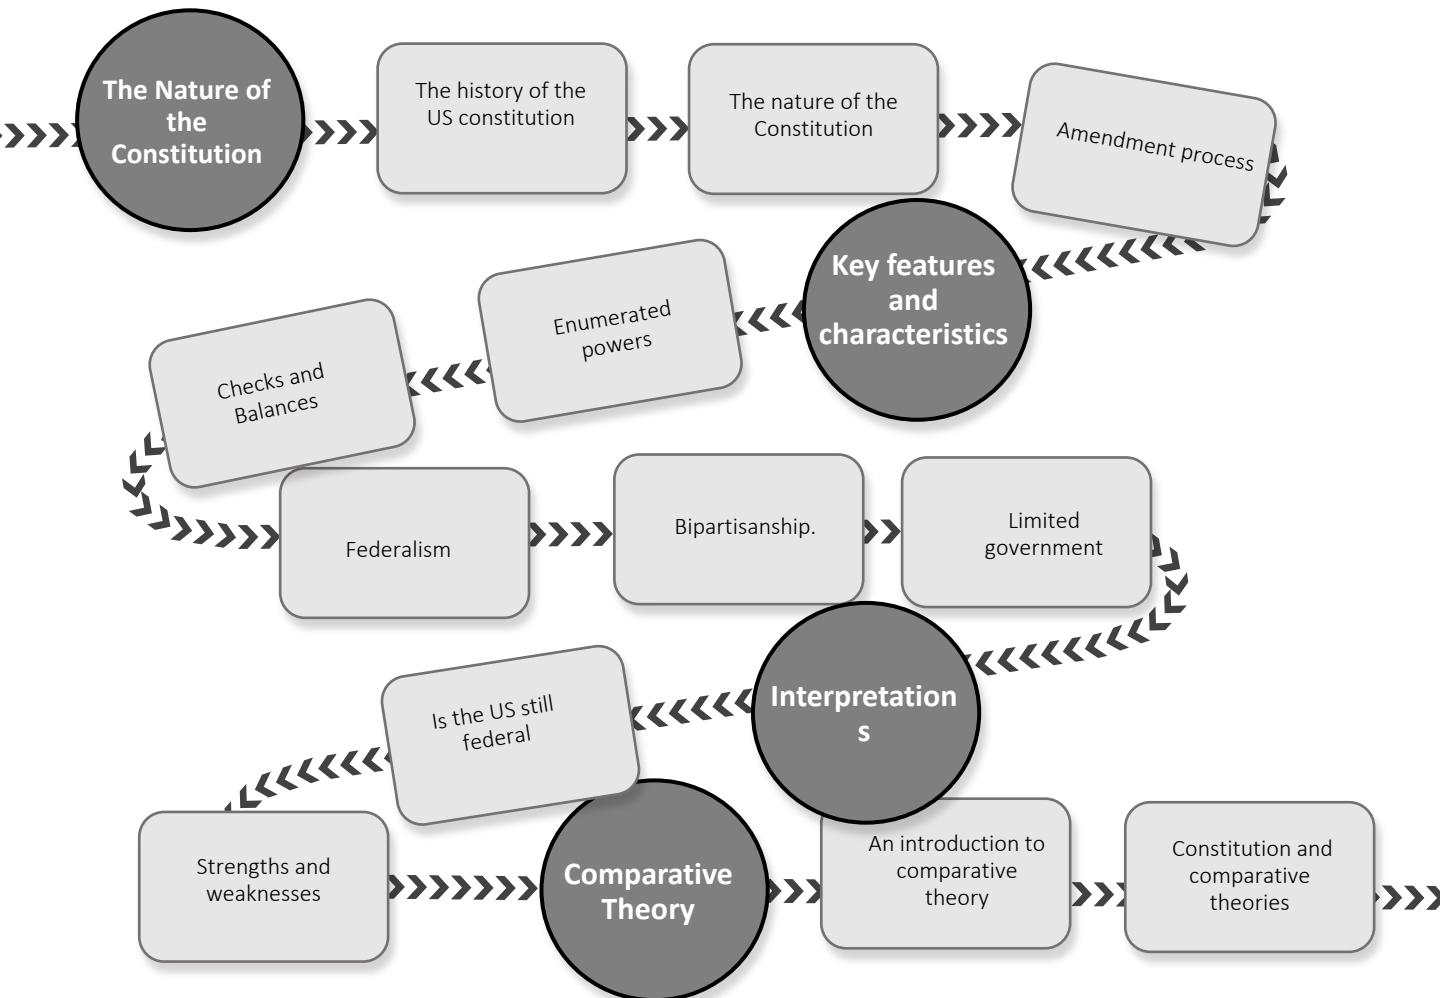

Politics

The US Constitution

Topic 1

- Students must comprehend and interpret political information in relation to areas of US politics.
- Students must fully understand and critically analyse and evaluate areas of US politics.
- Students must identify parallels, connections, similarities and differences between content studied, providing a basis for comparing the UK with the US.
- Students must construct and communicate arguments and explanations with relevance, clarity and coherence and draw reasoned conclusions about US politics.
- Students must develop knowledge and understanding of key political concepts.

KEY TERMINOLOGY: Bipartisanship, checks and balances, codification, constitution, entrenchment, enumerated powers, federalism, limited government, principle, separation of powers