Rights, Justice and the Law

Year 8 Spring Term 1

This term we continue with our topic on Rights, Justice and the Law. We will find out how laws are made and changed before focusing on the criminal justice system. We will consider how crimes are investigated and prosecuted. This will help you to better understand how our society functions and the rights and responsibilities you have. We will develop our understanding of the Tudor Learning and Character Habits as we focus on being curious and analytical, and demonstrating respect and responsibility.

Tudor Value –Respect (for the law) – To ensure we follow the law so our actions do not have a negative impact on others

KEY TERMINOLOGY: Civil, Criminal, Magistrate, Custody, Conviction,

Discussion ideas :
Should we have more or less laws?

Vocabulary link– Try and read a news article about the laws. How many of our keywords can you spot? What other words can you link?
