Year 13 Autumn Term 2

Previously you will have been introduced to the subjunctive mood and how to use and form the passive voice. In Year 13, you will revise and deepen your knowledge of those tenses. In this topic you will learn about aspects of political life in the French-speaking world, in particular you will study the French political system, the engagement of young people in political life and the future of politics. The content of the topic itself is new, however, and you will be practising it using the A-level exam activities and mark schemes.
