

LEARNING JOURNEY

German

Die Politik und die Jugend (Politics and Young People)

Year 13 Spring Term 2

In this module, you will discover the political landscape of German-speaking countries and the importance of their democratic political system. You will also consider the various ways that young people choose to get involved with politics and issues and priorities of young people in German-speaking countries. You will also consider your own political priorities and how you would choose to engage with politics.

TUDOR HABITS: You will develop empathy by considering different political views and priorities of young people in Germany.

VOCABULARY: