Duke of Edinburgh Direct Silver 2026- 2027

Application Tips and Advice

Useful dates:

6 th July 2026	Application pack to be submitted
13 th – 17 th July 2026	Successful applicants notified
4 th September 2026	Payment date for eDofE registration fee (£33.00)
28 th September 2026	Expedition programme - payment due (£402.00) Please note; this is available to pay on your child's MCAS from 22nd July 2026.
15 th April – 17 th April 2027	Silver Training Expedition (location tbc)
1st June 2027	Important; All activities for the Voluntary, physical and skills sections need to be completed along with uploaded evidence and an assessor's reports.
7 th May – 9 th May 2027	Silver Assessed Expedition (location tbc)

Advice on completing application:

- Please do not rush to hand in your application forms, take time to complete them as fully as possible.
- Think carefully about the activities you could do for each section.
- Why not try something new and challenging?
- Could you extend or continue an activity you have done before?
- Use the opportunity to meet new people.
- Check the Duke of Edinburgh website for ideas (www.dofe.org).
- What do you want to get out of the award?
- Who might assess each activity? (Note: This must NOT be a family member or other DofE participant)
- Are you prepared to work independently to complete the evidence needed for each section? (Successful applicants will be given an online account after payment of registration fee)
- Do you have time? (Each of the three sections Volunteering, Physical and Skills will require at least an hour each outside of your normal school timetable for a minimum of 26 weeks – see website for further information)
- Please do not apply if you really only want to do the expedition.

Expedition kit list:

See the kit list included with this pack and check the Duke of Edinburgh website for further information (www.dofe.org).

- Consider what items you need to purchase.
- Might you use some items again? (eg rucksack for travelling in future, walking boots for hiking with family and friends)
- Do you know anyone who has completed a DofE award previously who may have equipment you could borrow or purchase?

For further information on Duke of Edinburgh:

Please visit the Duke of Edinburgh Website : www.dofe.org

There are specific links for parents and lots of advice to help applicants in choosing activities.

Direct Entry To Silver DofE Awards

June 2026

Dear Parent/Carer,

I'm delighted to let you know that we are about to launch our recruitment for the direct entry process to the Direct Silver Duke of Edinburgh's Award (DofE) for 2026 – 2027.

Why do DofE?

Doing DofE is a brilliant way for your young person to discover just how much they are capable of. It gives young people the chance to make new friends, follow their passions, learn new skills and make a difference in our community. Gaining a DofE Award is a great way to impress employers too.

It's also non-competitive and a powerful way for every young person to build belief in themselves, whatever their background, interests and abilities.

How it works

A Silver DofE programme has 4 sections, Volunteering, Physical, Skills and Expedition. You need to do at least 6 months Volunteering and a minimum of 6 months on either Physical or Skills and 3 months on the other. It's up to you which one you do for longer. The Expedition section involves planning, training for and doing a 3 day (2 night) expedition.

If you start your Silver without doing Bronze, first you'll have to do an extra 6 months volunteering or doing whichever of the Physical or Skills sections you have spent more time on. Though you can change your mind later, you should decide which section you want to do for longer at the beginning. Knowing how long you're going to do it for will help you to choose your activity and set your goals for each section.

It will take you at least 6 months for Silver if you've already achieved your Bronze, or 12 months if you've jumped straight into Silver.

Next steps

YOUTH

You will need to complete an application pack which are available online on the school's website. There is a registration fee of £33.00 which needs to be paid by 4th September 2026 plus, an additional cost for the award of £402 by the 28th September 2026. (If your child is interested in taking part but the cost is prohibitive, please do speak to me as we may be able to arrange financial support).

There will be information resources on the school website shortly for parents. If you have any questions in the meantime, please feel free to contact me on

RRollason@solihull.tgacademy.org.uk

The DofE website – www.dofe.org - has a lot of useful information too.

I am the DofE Manager for Tudor Grange Academy, Solihull so if you think you might be interested or have any questions, please get in touch. It would be wonderful to get a big group of students together to make the most of this opportunity.

Thank you for your support. I hope you'll agree that the DofE is the perfect way for your child to feel ready for anything.

Kind Regards

Dear Student

I'm excited to let you know that you can now sign up to do your Direct Silver Duke of Edinburgh's (DofE) Award in school.

DofE gives you the chance to discover just how much you're capable of. It's also a great way to meet new people, try new things, do what you love and make a difference in your community. Through DofE, you could try everything from surfing to salsa dancing, coding to candle making, bee keeping to ballet. It's your call.

DofE is non-competitive and for everyone – whatever your interests, background and abilities. It's about finding the confidence to be yourself, and knowing that when things get tough, you can find a way through.

How it works

To achieve your Award, you'll need to complete four sections –Volunteering, Physical, Skills and Expedition. Plus, a Residential for Gold. What you do for the first three sections is up to you, and we'll give you all the support you need. The Expedition involves spending three days and two nights in the countryside, and again we'll make sure you're fully prepared for it.

I'm the DofE Manager for Tudor Grange Academy, Solihull. So, if you think you might be interested or have any questions, do get in touch. It would be great to get a big group of students together to make the most of this opportunity. With DofE, you can prove to yourself that you're ready for anything.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind Regards

Miss Rachel Rollason

TUDOR GRANGE ACADEMY
Direct Silver Duke of Edinburgh Award
Attendance Agreement 2026/2027

The aim of DofE sessions at Tudor Grange Academy is to support students in gaining the skills necessary to take part in a self-sufficient expedition in a safe and competent manner; to promote independence and explore the world outside school.

Student Agreement:

To ensure a successful and enjoyable programme we would ask you to adhere to the following:

- I will attend all DofE meetings as agreed with my DofE Leader.
- If I am issued with a private detention, I will arrange it for an evening when I do not have DofE.
- If I am absent from school, I will provide my DofE leader with a note signed by my parent/guardian and liaise with a different DofE leader to attend their session on the topic I missed.
- I will be willing to learn and take part in the set activities.
- I understand that if I haven't completed all the training requirements of the DofE programme, it will be unlikely that I will be deemed competent and therefore will not be able to attend the practice or qualifying expeditions.
- I will complete and submit the DofE Silver Award Bitesize planner, Letter Of Interest and return to Miss Rollason - Mirzakhani Office in Willow where there will be a collection box. These need to be returned by 6th July 2026.

I(student name) agree to the conditions of the DofE programme.

I understand that if I am absent from 3 or more DofE meetings that this will result in my removal from the programme.

Parent/Guardian Agreement:

I agree that my son/daughter can participate in the DofE programme and must adhere to the conditions of the Student Agreement above. I understand that if my child does not attend all DofE meetings and meet the training requirements of the DofE programme then he/she will be unable to participate in the expedition section of the award.

I acknowledge that places are limited and, as a result, the application may be held on a waiting list if numbers of applicants exceed places available and that incomplete applications will be rejected.

I will complete and return the enrolment form and medical consent form to Miss Rollason - Mirzakhani Office in Willow where there will be a collection box. These need to be returned by 6th July 2026.

I understand that a payment of £33.00 for e-DofE registration must be paid via ParentPay by 4th September 2026 if my son/daughter's application is successful. [Note: MCAS payment option will not be available until after letters of acceptance have been issued between 13th-17th July 2026.

I understand that an additional payment of £402.00 to cover expedition programme costs will be made via MCAS by 28th September 2026. (Please note; If this is a concern, please contact me at your earliest convenience as we may be able to arrange a financial agreement).

Please select Yes/No if you require financial support towards the DofE Registration Fees (Bronze £33, Silver £33 and Gold £40): YES/NO

.....(signed parent/guardian)(date)

Please complete and return all application pack documents listed on the application cover sheet to Miss Rollason - Mirzakhani Office in Willow where there will be a collection box. These need to be returned by 6th July 2026.

STARTING AGES:

All Awards must be completed by the participant's 25th birthday

COMPLETING YOUR DUKE OF EDINBURGH'S AWARD

You may have started a Bronze, Silver or Gold Duke of Edinburgh award during your education at Tudor Grange Academy Solihull, but did you complete the award? You have until your 25th birthday to complete the award, but don't leave it too long – get it completed over this summer while you have some free time on your hands.

Employers, colleges and universities value the Duke of Edinburgh award – it may give you that competitive edge when applying for jobs or further education opportunities.

Check out this 10 Step User Guide:

eDofE 10 Step User Guide

WHAT DO I NEED TO COMPLETE A SECTION?

The minimum evidence you will need is an assessor report. See examples in Step 6 of the User Guide above. Note: All sections of the paper report have been completed! Make sure your report is similarly completed (Name, eDofE ID number, start/end dates, goals, dated signature of assessor, assessor name and all contact details, plus an explanation of activities undertaken).

ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE

Although not essential, it is sometimes helpful to leaders or your award verifier to see additional evidence of your activities. Take a look at Step 5 on the User Guide. Photographs are good (particularly for creative activities) and activity logs can be useful too (Activity Logs)

NOT BEEN ABLE TO COMPLETE THE ACTIVITY YOU STARTED?

See <https://www.dofe.org/dofewithadifference/> for ideas on activities you can complete at home.

If you started an activity but did not complete it, the time you have completed counts towards your award. Simply get an assessor to complete a report for the initial activity and submit.

Now find a new activity you can complete for the remainder of the time (eg Volunteered in charity shop for 3 weeks, doing further 9 weeks helping an elderly neighbour), submit a change of activity request (<https://help.edofe.org/hc/en-gb/articles/360024234534-How-do-I-change-my-activity->) then submit a second assessor report for the new activity when completed.

STILL NEED FURTHER HELP?

Contact Miss Rollason, the Duke of Edinburgh Manager And Educational Visits Coordinator, via email; rrollason@solihull.tgacademy.org.uk) and she will answer your queries as soon as possible.

GOOD LUCK! HOPE TO SEE YOUR AWARD COMING THROUGH FOR APPROVAL IN THE VERY NEAR FUTURE....

Programme ideas: Volunteering section

When completing each section of your DofE, you should develop a programme which is specific and relevant to you. This sheet gives you a list of programme ideas that you could do or you could use it as a starting point to create a Volunteering section programme of your own.

You can find more information at DofE.org/volunteering and there is a range of exciting opportunities to help you complete this section at DofE.org/finder.

It's your choice...

Volunteering gives you the chance to make a difference to people's lives and use your skills and experience to help your local community. You can use this opportunity to become involved in a project or with an organisation that you care about.

Help with planning

You can use the programme planner on the website to work with your Leader to plan and agree your activity before you start.

Before you begin, it is important to check that your volunteering meets the criteria for businesses and family members (see DofE.org/volunteering for the requirements).

Programme ideas: Physical section

When completing each section of your DofE, you should develop a programme which is specific and relevant to you. Many of the DofE programme activities can be adapted to meet the needs of young people with disabilities and some, referred to as adapted sports, are unique to disabled people.

This sheet gives you a list of programme ideas that you could do or you could use it as a starting point to create a physical programme of your own.

You can find more information at DofE.org/physical and there is a range of exciting opportunities to help you complete this section at DofE.org/finder.

It's your choice...

Doing physical activity is fun and improves your health and physical fitness. There's an activity to suit everyone so choose something you are really interested in.

Programme ideas: Expedition section

When completing each section of your DofE, you should develop a programme which is specific and relevant to you. This sheet gives you a list of ideas that you could do or you could use it as a starting point to create an Expedition of your own. Remember, it's always your adventure.

You can find more information at DofE.org/expedition and there is a range of exciting opportunities to help you complete this section at DofE.org/finder.

It's your choice...

Going on an expedition gives you the chance to have an adventure, work as a team, and act on your own initiative. The expedition can be as far away or as close to home as you want it to be, and there are hundreds of ways you can go about it.

Help with planning

You can use the handy programme planner on the website to work with your Leader to plan your activity. If you have additional needs talk to your leader about the support and variations that could help you.

On foot

- ☐ Studying how insect life differs from woodland to open fields.
- ☐ Exploring teamwork by nominating a different leader each day.
- ☐ Searching for forms of fungi, recording and sketching them.
- ☐ Planning a route and create a signpost selfie guide.
- ☐ Considering the impact of tourism on the flora and fauna of the area you are in.
- ☐ Drawing all the different star constellations you can see.
- ☐ Creating a photo guide to the Countryside Code.

By bicycle

- ☐ Using a cycle system to undertake a research project on the provisions and quality of cycle paths.
- ☐ Producing a nature guide of your route for future visitors.
- ☐ Investigating features of the Thames using the Thames cycle path.
- ☐ Plan a cycle of remembrance which visits war memorials to understand the scale of the losses.

- ☐ Creating a video diary of the expedition, recording each team member's experiences.
- ☐ Following part of the Gerald of Wales route of 1188 through Pembrokeshire.

By boat

- ☐ Sailing the Norfolk Broads to explore modern and ancient uses of the area.
- ☐ Exploring different team roles needed on a boat and giving everyone an opportunity to do a new one.
- ☐ Rowing along a large river recording the types of boats and their uses.
- ☐ Planning a significant sea journey under sail to record the effects of coastal erosion.
- ☐ Using simple mapping techniques to produce a map of an estuary on the expedition, comparing it with a real map when you return.

By canoe or kayak

- ☐ Recording the wildlife found on a large inlet or loch.
- ☐ Taking a series of photos to come up with a guide to a section of canal systems.

- ☐ Making a study of the locks and lochs on the Caledonian Canal.
- ☐ Investigating samples of the river bed en route and comparing them with each other.
- ☐ Carrying out a canoe trip and create a storyboard (photo/painted/drawn) of your expedition.
- ☐ Choosing several points along a river and measure speed of flow, width and depth and comparing the differences along their route, trying to explain why this may be.

By wheelchair

- ☐ Creating an expedition music play list that reflects the team's experiences.
- ☐ Following a disused railway track noting the current use of previous railway buildings.
- ☐ Planning and doing a challenging route in the Peak District, making a video diary.
- ☐ Preparing a users' guide of a country park or National Trust estate, explaining how it can be used, e.g. fishing, picnicking, conservation.

- ☐ Planning a route in a forest to take a series of landscape photographs to use in a calendar.
- ☐ Producing an illustrated guide to a stretch of canal. Research the history and then travel along the towpath using the expedition to gather photographs and sketches to illustrate the guide.

On horseback

- ☐ Exploring bridle paths and create an A-Z of the outdoors from the trip.
- ☐ Planning an expedition with sea views, taking photos along the way so that you can paint a picture of your favourite scene when you return.
- ☐ Creating a series of team games to play whilst on expedition.
- ☐ Going on an expedition through woodland, noting the different types and ages of trees you see.
- ☐ Going on a horseriding expedition and writing a poem on your return to describe your experiences.

Programme ideas: Residential section

When completing each section of your DofE, you should develop a programme which is specific and relevant to you.

This sheet gives you some ideas of things you could do or could use as a starting point to create a Residential of your own.

You can find more information at DofE.org/residential and there is a range of exciting opportunities to help you complete this section at DofE.org/finder.

It's your choice...

Going on a residential gives you the chance to learn how to work with people from different backgrounds and build confidence living in new environments. There are loads of exciting possibilities and opportunities, so choose something which you will find really fulfilling.

Help with planning

You can use the programme planner on the website to plan your activity with the support of your DofE Leader.

Before you commit to a residential it is important to have approval from your DofE Manager to ensure that it meets all the criteria (see DofE.org/residential for the requirements).

Please note: The programme ideas listed below are thinking prompts, we cannot guarantee that these programmes are actively run by providers.)

Service to others

- ☐ Being a leader at a UK-based holiday camp for disadvantaged young people.
- ☐ Undertaking a voluntary teaching placement overseas.
- ☐ Being part of a service crew at a large summer camp for Brownies.
- ☐ Volunteering on a YHA residential summer camp.
- ☐ Volunteering at a residential summer school.
- ☐ Being an assistant to support an eco-friendly waste project at an outdoor education centre
- ☐ Helping out on a pilgrimage.

Environment and conservation

- ☐ Joining a tree planting project with your local environment trust.
- ☐ Attending a conference on climate change as a youth representative
- ☐ Helping the preservation team of a railway or canal
- ☐ Studying coral bleaching in Australia.
- ☐ Joining a National Trust working holiday and join different conservation projects in various locations across the UK.
- ☐ Taking part in a Field Studies course learning about biodiversity and conservation.

Learning

- ☐ Undertaking a cookery course.
- ☐ Doing a photography course and exhibiting your work.
- ☐ Taking part in a bushcraft residential.
- ☐ Spending time on a narrowboat and training towards becoming a skipper.
- ☐ Taking part in a field studies course.
- ☐ Learning to write and produce music and putting on a show.
- ☐ Taking part in an astronomy course, learning about constellations, black holes and solar systems.
- ☐ Taking part in a week-long Gaelic or Welsh language and culture course.

Activity based

- ☐ Taking part in a sport based residential developing your basketball skills.
- ☐ Taking part in multi-faith residential, studying different religions.
- ☐ Joining an ACF activity week with members of different detachments you don't know.
- ☐ Learning to snowboard on an intensive course in Scotland.
- ☐ Joining an historical re-enactment society

PROGRAMME IDEAS

When completing each section of your DofE, you should develop a programme which is specific and relevant to you. This sheet gives you a list of programme ideas that you could do or you could use it as a starting point to create a programme of your own!

For each idea, there is guidance on how to do it, which you can find under the links on www.DofE.org/sections

You can use the handy programme planner on the website to work with your Leader to plan your activity.

Volunteering section

Volunteering gives you the chance to make a difference to people's lives and use your skills and experience to help your local community. You can use this opportunity to become involved in a project or with an organisation that you care about.

Expedition section

Going on an expedition gives you the chance to have an adventure, work as a team, and act on your own initiative. The expedition can be as far away or as close to home as you want it to be, and there are hundreds of ways you can go about it.

On foot

- Studying insect life on the South Downs.

- Exploring teamwork by nominating a different leader each day.
- Searching for forms of fungi, recording and sketching them.
- Planning a route around three of the places that inspired Wordsworth's poems in the Lake District.
- Considering the impact of tourism on the flora and fauna of the French Alps.
- Drawing all the different star constellations you can see.
- Creating a photo guide to the Countryside Code round the Mourne Mountains.

By bicycle

- Using the cycle system in the Netherlands to undertake a research project on the provisions and quality of cycle paths compared to Britain.
- Producing a nature guide of your route for future visitors.
- Investigating features of the Thames using the Thames cycle path.
- Doing a cycle of remembrance, taking in the historic wartime sites in Normandy.
- Creating a video diary of the expedition, recording each team member's experiences.
- Following part of the Gerald of Wales route of 1188 through Pembrokeshire.

By boat

- Exploring the Norfolk Broads using sailing dinghies.
- Exploring different team roles needed on a boat and giving everyone an opportunity to do a new one.
- Rowing along the Danube in Germany booking camp sites in advance.
- Planning a cross-channel journey in a yacht.
- Using simple mapping techniques to produce a map of an estuary on the expedition & compare it with a real map when you return.
- Planning a Bronze sailing expedition on Lake Ullswater in the Lake District.

By canoe or kayak

- Recording the wildlife found on the Strangford Lough canoe trail.
- Taking a series of photos to come up with a guide to a section of canal systems.
- Making a study of the locks and lochs on the Caledonian Canal.
- Investigating samples of the river bed en route and comparing them with each other.
- Carrying out a wilderness trip in Canada using the canoe trails used by the original settlers.
- Choosing several points along a river and measure speed of flow, width and depth and comparing the differences along their route, trying to explain why this may be.

By wheelchair

- Following a disused railway track noting the current use of previous railway buildings.
- Preparing a users' guide of a country park or National Trust estate, explaining how it can be used, e.g. fishing, picnicking, conservation.
- Planning and doing a challenging route in the Peak District, making a video diary.
- Planning a route in Cropton Forest to take a series of landscape photographs to use in a calendar.
- Producing an illustrated guide to a stretch of canal. Research the history and then travel along the towpath using the expedition to gather photographs and sketches to illustrate the guide.
- Creating an expedition music play list that reflects the team's experiences.

On horseback

- Planning an expedition on horseback in the countryside including identifying suitable farm camp sites and bridleways.
- Exploring accessibility and bridle paths in the Brecon Beacons.
- Planning an expedition with sea views in Devon, taking photos along the way so that you can paint a picture of your favourite scene when you return.
- Creating a series of team games to play whilst on expedition.
- Going on an expedition through woodland, noting the different types and ages of trees you see.
- Going on a horseriding expedition and writing a poem on your return to describe your experiences.

Residential section

Going on a residential gives you the chance to learn how to work with people from different backgrounds and build confidence living in new environments. There are loads of exciting possibilities and opportunities, so choose something which you will find really fulfilling.

Service to others

- Teaching English overseas.
- Helping out on an overseas pilgrimage.
- Being a leader at an overseas children's camp that promotes healthy eating and exercise.
- Rebuilding a school roof in Lesotho.

- Helping deafblind young people and adults to enjoy a holiday.
- Being an assistant to support an eco-friendly waste project at an outdoor education centre.
- Assisting at a summer camp for Brownies.
- Helping at an orphanage.

Environment and conservation

- Attending a conference on climate change as a youth representative for your local authority.
- Studying coral bleaching in Australia.
- Joining a tree planting project with The Woodland Trust.
- Doing dry stone walling in the West Tyne Valley in the shadow of Hadrian's Wall.
- Helping the preservation team of a narrow gauge railway in mid Wales.

Learning

- Undertaking a cookery course.
- Doing a falconry course.
- Studying traditional dance.
- Studying art history in Florence.
- Doing a photography course run by a university and exhibiting your work.
- Exploring accessibility and bridle paths in the Brecon Beacons.
- Planning an expedition with sea views in Devon, taking photos along the way so that you can paint a picture of your favourite scene when you return.
- Creating a series of team games to play whilst on expedition.
- Going on an expedition through woodland, noting the different types and ages of trees you see.
- Going on a horseriding expedition and writing a poem on your return to describe your experiences.

Activity based

- Taking part in a week-long discovery of stage combat in Wales.
- Going white water rafting in New Zealand past glaciers and mountains.
- Taking part in a multi-faith residential, studying different religions.
- Joining an historical re-enactment of the Battle of Bosworth.
- Joining an ACF activity week with members of different detachments.

Stove Safety Instructions for Schools and Groups

Expedition preparation

- Before setting out on expedition, always be familiar with the stove and fuel.
- Be confident in how to use the stove and what dangers are associated with it and the fuel.
- DofE participants and adults need to follow their Licensed Organisation's policies and the safety guidance given in this sheet.
- If using gas, always set off on expedition with full gas canisters. We recommend using any used/half empty canisters for future training sessions.

Suitable location

- Take some time to pick the cooking location. A firm level surface at ground level where the stove will not be knocked over is ideal and it must be at least two metres away from flammable items/tents.
- Consider the weather conditions and wind direction. This Endurance Lava stove is designed to be stable and easily shields the source of heat from the wind but in extreme conditions, we'd recommend taking shelter behind a wall or rock.

General stove safety

- Never use this stove indoors, or inside a tent. Always cook outside away from any obvious risk.
- Have water and a wet tea towel nearby, ready to use as a fire blanket. Always be careful to check if there is a flame or not, especially in bright sunlight.
- Never leave stove unattended or unwatched when alight.
- Make it clear to other people that stoves are lit/hot and get everything needed together before starting to cook. Have somewhere safe nearby to put hot pans.

Gas burners & canisters

- DofE teams must never use a gas stove that does not use self-sealing canisters.
- This stove is designed for gas canisters with threaded valves according to EN417 containing propane/butane gas mixtures.
- Keep the cartridge away from the heat of the stove unit, by using the full length of hose.
- After use, ensure that the valve is fully shut (control knob turned fully clock-wise). There may be a slight delay between shutting the valve and the burner extinguishing.
- To change the canisters, shut the valve fully and be sure the flame is extinguished and no other flame is nearby.
- Remove canisters from the stove for journeying.

Gel fuels (bio-ethanol)

- Do not fill gel burner over two thirds full.
- Never refill a lit or hot stove – the flame can be hard to see. Always check for heat – bubbling and a crackling noise indicates the gel is alight.
- Always refill from a small gel container, not a bulk container.
- Always keep unused fuel at least three metres away from the stove or any source of ignition and do not store in direct sunlight.

Spirit burners and fuel (methylated spirits)

- The spirit fuel must be carried in bottles specifically designed for the purpose which have a screw top and a safety valve. We recommend Trangia fuel bottles with safety valves.
- Fill the stove spirit burner from the Trangia fuel bottle with safety valve, never from a bulk container such as a one gallon can or plastic container.
- Fuel should not be handled near tents or any naked flames; it is good practice to have a 're-fuelling' area where fuel is handled away from the designated cooking area.
- Take great care when re-fuelling the stove, make sure that the flame is completely extinguished (the flame can be invisible, especially in sunlight) and the stove/burner has cooled before removing the burner to re-fill it (take the burner to the fuel, not the fuel to the burner). If the burner is too hot to handle, it is too hot to fill.

Stove safety instructions

- Take some time to pick the cooking location. A firm level surface at ground level where the stove will not be knocked over is ideal and it must be at least two metres away from flammable items/tents.
- Consider the weather conditions and wind direction.
- Make it clear to other people that stoves are lit/hot and get everything needed together before starting to cook. Have somewhere safe nearby to put hot pans.

General safety

- Always be familiar with the stove & fuel before setting out.
- Be confident in how to use the stove and what dangers are associated with it and the fuel, for example gas canisters.
- Have water and a wet tea towel nearby, ready to use as a fire blanket. Always be careful to check if there is a flame or not, especially in bright sunlight.
- Never leave a lit stove unattended or unwatched.
- DofE participants and adults need to follow their Licensed Organisation's policies and the instruction and safety guidance given by the manufacturer of the stove they have chosen to use.

Gas stoves

- DofE teams must never use a gas stove that does not use self-sealing cylinders or cartridges.
- Remove cartridges from the stove for journeying and replace part used cartridges for full ones before the start of the expedition.
- It is best to use a gas stove that is low, stable and easy to shield from the wind.
- For exposed areas participants can use wind shields made of aluminium foil which can be bent into shape.

Gel fuels (Bio-ethanol)

- Do not fill gel burner over two thirds full.
- Never refill a lit or hot stove – the flame can be hard to see. Always check for heat – bubbling and a crackling noise indicates the gel is alight.
- Always refill from a small gel container, not a bulk container.
- Always keep unused fuel at least three metres away from the stove or any source of ignition and do not store in direct sunlight.

Spirit stove safety instructions

- The stove must be placed on a firm level surface, at least two metres away from flammable items/tents, in a place where it cannot be knocked over.
- Fill the stove from a small container, never from a bulk container such as a one gallon can or plastic container. (It is permissible to sell methylated spirits in a plastic container).
- The spirit must be carried in bottles specifically designed for the purpose which have a screw top and a safety valve. These should normally be around half a litre in capacity and the stoves should be filled from these bottles. Trangia fuel bottles with safety valves are good to use as these will prevent a full bottle fire. Note – it is not immediately obvious when the bottle is in the locked closed position, any pressure on the plunger in the open position can lead to leakage.
- Fuel should not be handled near tents or any naked flames; it is good practice to have a 're-fuelling' area where fuel is handled away from the designated cooking area.
- One person should carry the stove or the spirit cup downwind, away from the tents and it should be fuelled, or refuelled, in a place where there are no naked flames in the vicinity.

- Take great care when re-fuelling the stove, make sure that the flame is completely extinguished (the flame can be invisible, especially in sunlight) and the stove/burner has cooled before removing the burner to re-fill it (take the burner to the fuel, not the fuel to the burner). Remove the pan and carefully place a hand over the spirit cup or hold the corner of a sheet of paper just above the burner. This will indicate if the burner is still lit. The burner should be taken to the fuel, not the fuel to the burner (if the burner is cool enough to pick up it won't still be alight).
- If it is necessary to refill a burner, assume it is still burning. Go through the normal procedure of putting the burner lid over the flame to extinguish. Wait until the burner has gone cold before refilling.

Preparing For DofE Expeditions And Top Tips

The thought of going on an expedition for the first time, being self-sufficient in every way and travelling to places that you may have never been to before may seem extremely daunting to some but also, there may be the elements of excitement emerging too!

The DofE team at Tudor Grange Academy, Solihull are fully aware of the mixed emotions that participants and parents may experience and we understand. We are here to help alleviate any anxieties both pupils and parents may have. Our team provide the right training and support to every pupil that participates to enable them to succeed and thoroughly enjoy their time completing their DofE award. We want them to achieve everything they set out to do in the safest way possible – Pupil's safety and well-being is paramount and our priority.

TGA Solihull work closely with approved companies to help deliver all of the DofE Awards to the highest of standards whilst making it affordable for all. The companies we partner with are Chase Training Solutions and RICH Adventure.

Before any expedition, preparation is vital and the key to success!

Below are some Top Tips and links to more in-depth information and helpful advice from the official DofE website. Your children/participants will become extremely familiar with this site when embarking onto their Award at any level. It gives a fantastic insight into the DofE programmes plus, access to lots of useful resources.

Preparation:

Fitness training

Having a good level of fitness will aid your success during the expeditions. If you aren't quite there yet, don't worry you can work as a team and set up training sessions that are fun and also increase your stamina. Some people embark on increasing their fitness as part of their 'Physical' section.

For more ideas and information click here:

<https://www.dofe.org/dofewithadifference/activities/physical/>

Planning Expeditions and training will be organised by the DofE leaders at the school. It is also good to practice using a compass and map reading at home. Another top tip is to practice putting up a tent in the dark or, blindfolded as there may be situations where you arrive at a destination in the dark.

Teamwork

Not only is it good to get to know each other at school and within your DofE team when training, it's also very good to arrange to all go out with your team outside of school and training hours to strengthen friendships, trust and team spirit.

Clothing And kit

Within this pack there is an official DofE recommended kit list you can also find it here:

<https://www.dofe.org/shopping/dofe-expedition-kit-list/>

It's always advisable to keep some dry clothes in a bivvy bag/waterproof bag inside your rucksack for sleeping in.

Another top tip is to practice small hikes in your walking boots (boots for best ankle support), prior to any big expedition so that you can 'break in' your boots. If your boots rub, stop immediately and find out why. A good quality pair of walking socks are essential along with spare dry pairs for each day.

Below is the link to the 'Ultimate guide of how to pack your rucksac properly!'

<https://www.dofe.org/shopping/everything-you-need-to-know-about-packing-your-expedition-rucksack/>

First Aid Kits

The team will share bigger first aid kit supplies amongst each one's rucksac to spread the load. However, it is important for everyone to take their own small first aid kit for emergencies. Below is the link for more information on what to include:

<https://www.dofe.org/shopping/expedition-kit/first-aid/>

Food Supplies

Top Tip: Drink little and often in ALL weathers even if you don't feel thirsty – even more so in hot weather!

Plan together! Food needs to be lightweight but also nutritious to provide you with sustainable energy throughout your expedition.

<https://www.dofe.org/shopping/expedition-kit/expedition-food/>

Expedition Safety

Always stay together and walk at the pace of the slowest person. The only time one person may split off from the group is to go and get help if there is an emergency situation.

Safety also covers your health! Being prepared and following the correct clothing principles is essential to keep you upright, happy and healthy.

Please follow the link below on further advice on clothing principles:

With you every step of the way

1. What is a map?

A map is simply a drawing or picture (in 2D) of a landscape or area of a country (in 3D). It could be anything from a sketch map for a visitor to find your school to a detailed map of a town centre or mountain range.

Using a map you can visualise in your mind what the place looks like that you are going to, and you can see what landmarks and features you will pass on the way to your destination. Maps mean you know what to expect, and they help you to know you are going in the right direction to arrive at your destination safely and quickly.

1:25 000 scale extract showing Snowdon, the highest mountain in Wales

Question

Why not try drawing your own map to show a friend the route from your house to school, showing buildings and landmarks you pass on the way?

Top tip!

Have a look at a 1:25 000 scale map to give you some ideas of what you could draw if you are slightly unsure.

Sketch map of a school

2. What are all the different symbols?

When drawing a map, you will find that you have to label lots of things you draw, such as a shop or a church, so other people can tell what they are. If Ordnance Survey had to do this on all maps there would be too much writing and it would be very confusing. The way we get around this problem is by using different shapes, colours and symbols to show all the roads, buildings and rivers and other interesting things in our landscape. Maps may even show you things you never even knew were there!

Maps usually have a key that explains the symbols and their meanings. If you find a symbol on the map that you don't know, simply look it up in the key.

1:25 000 scale extract showing part of London

Question

2a. Have a look at the key on a 1:25 000 scale map and see if you can find out what these symbols mean.

2b. You can invent your own symbols for things on your own sketch map. Here are two ideas; can you guess what they are?

Top tip!

Get your friends and family to test you on how well you know the symbols. If you can learn them, then map reading is easy.

3. Which direction am I going?

Just as it is important to know which is your left and your right hand, in map reading it is important to understand where north, east, south and west are. You can remember where the points of the compass are by using one of these rhymes:

Naughty Elephants Squirt Water or Nobody Ever Swallows Whales

If you are walking in a direction half way between two of the points of a compass, you can say you are heading north-east, south-east, south-west or north-west, depending on the direction.

Top tip!

Ordnance Survey maps are always printed so that north is at the top of the sheet.

Question

Using the 1:25 000 scale Bembridge OS Explorer Map extract on page 6 of this booklet can you answer these questions?

- 3a. Which general direction are you heading if you are walking from point 1 to point 2?
- 3b. Which general direction are you heading if you are walking from point 2 to point 3?
- 3c. Which general direction are you heading if you are walking from point 3 to point 1?

4. How do grid references help me to find places?

You might have noticed by now that a 1:25 000 scale Ordnance Survey map is covered in a series of blue grid lines. These grid lines help you to pinpoint an exact location anywhere on the map by giving a unique number known as a grid reference. The vertical lines are called eastings, since they increase in value as you travel east on the map. The horizontal lines are called northings, since they increase in value as you travel north on the map.

Four-figure grid references

A four-figure grid reference is a handy way of identifying any square on a map. Grid references are easy if you can remember that you always have to go along the corridor before you go up the stairs. To find the number of a square first use the eastings to go along the corridor until you come to the bottom left-hand corner of the square you want. Write this two-figure number down. Then use the northing to go up the stairs until you find the same corner. Put this two-figure number after your first one and you now have the four-figure grid reference, which looks like this: 2951

Top tip!

Always remember: Along the corridor and then up the stairs.

Question

4a. Can you work out the four-figure grid references for the following examples?

A B C

Using the Bembridge OS Explorer Map extract on page 6 of this booklet, can you answer these questions?

- 4b. What is the name of the school in grid square 6486?
 4c. What is the name of the named building in grid square 6488?
 4d. What grid square is Black Rock found in?

Six-figure grid references

If you want to pinpoint an exact place on a map, such as your own house, you will need to use a six-figure grid reference. First find the four-figure grid reference for the square and write it down with a space after each set of numbers, like this: 62_ 33_

Now imagine this square is divided up into 100 tiny squares with 10 squares along each side. Still remembering to go along the corridor and up the stairs, work out the extra numbers you need and put them into your four-figure grid reference like this: 625 333

Question

4e. Can you work out the six-figure grid references for the following examples?

A B C

Using the Bembridge OS Explorer Map extract on page 6 of this booklet can you answer these questions?

- 4f. What is at grid reference 648876?
 4g. What would you be doing at grid reference 644885?
 4h. What building is to be found at grid reference 643882?

Top tip!

When giving directions you can provide even more accuracy to your grid reference by stating a nearby landmark or feature. For example, on the Bembridge OS Explorer Map extract on page 6 I am at grid reference 644874, at the crossroads.

5. What is scale?

The scale of a map shows how much you would have to enlarge your map to get the actual size of the piece of land you are looking at. For example, your map has a scale of 1:25 000, which means that every 1 cm on the map represents 25 000 of those same units of measurement on the ground (for example, 25 000 cm = 250 metres).

That might sound a bit complicated, but Ordnance Survey maps have been designed to make understanding scale easy. Look at the front of a 1:25 000 scale map and you will see that the scale has been written out for you like this:

1: 250 000 scale OS Travel Map – Road extract

4 cm to 1 km

This means that every 4 cm on a map = 1 km in real life. To make it even easier, the grid lines are exactly 4 cm apart, so every square is 1 km by 1 km.

Maps are made at different scales for different purposes. The 1:25 000 scale map is very useful for walking, but if you use it in a car you will quickly drive off the edge! On the other hand, maps at 1:250 000 scale (note the extra zero) show lots more land but in far less detail.

1:25 000 scale Explorer extract

Question

5. Is a 1:250 000 scale map useful for walking or driving?

6. How do we measure distance?

It is always important to know how far you have to travel and how long it is going to take you. By measuring a distance on your map, you can work out how far that is in reality. You can measure this distance either in a straight line (as the crow flies) or following a winding route such as a country lane. To get this information from a map is very easy.

Here is a way of doing it:

You can measure between two points by using a piece of thin string. If you are measuring the distance in a straight line, then simply stretch the string between the two points. If you are following a road or track that is not straight, bend the string to follow the exact shape until you reach the second point.

Measuring distance using string

Now that you have a distance in centimetres marked on your string you can find out the real distance. You can do this in a couple of ways:

By eye

Place string against the scale bar on the map. This is usually at the foot of the map sheet.

By measuring

Measure your distance on your string with a ruler.

Suppose your string is 10 cms long. You know that 4 cm = 1 km, so the answer is 2.5 km.

Have a go at measuring the distances in the questions below using the Bembridge OS Explorer Map extract on page 6 of this booklet.

Question

- 6a. How far is it in a straight line on the ground from point 1 to point 2?
- 6b. How far is it to walk along the road from point 4 (IRB Sta) to point 5 (PO)?
- 6c. Can you work out how long it would take you to walk both these distances?

(Most people walk at 3 km per hour, so it will take 20 minutes to walk in a straight line across a 1 km grid square).

Top tip!

Remember that the grid lines on a 1:25 000 scale map are 1 km apart. A quick way of estimating distance is to count each square you cross in a straight line. If going diagonally the distance across the grid square is about 1½ km.

7. How are hills and mountains shown on a map?

The ability to understand the shape of the ground from a map is a useful skill to learn, particularly in mountainous landscapes. The height and shape of the ground is shown on 1:25 000 scale maps by brown contour lines. A contour is a line drawn on a map that joins points of equal height above sea level. For 1:25 000 scale maps the interval between contours is usually 5 metres, although in mountainous regions it may well be 10 metres.

The above diagram shows the link between the shape of a hill and the contours representing it on a map. Another way of thinking about contour lines is as a tide mark left by the sea as the tide goes out, leaving a line every 5 metres.

Top tip!

Remember contour numbering reads up hill – in other words the top of the number is uphill and the bottom is downhill.

Also remember the closer contour lines are together, the steeper the slope. The examples below illustrate this:

Gentle slope

Steep slope

Question

Try this quick contour quiz using the Bembridge OS Explorer Map extract below.

7a. What type of slope is at the point where the parking symbol is on the map in grid square 6385? Is it a shallow slope or a steep slope?

7b. If you are walking from point 2 to point 5 in a straight line, is it uphill or downhill?

Maps can be great fun – and they can lead you to all sorts of discoveries. They can help you get to know an area really well, because they pinpoint interesting places that are often hidden away, which you might otherwise never find. They can also help you find different routes to places you already know.

To be sure you are not missing anything important you need to know about map symbols, scale, direction and distance. Knowing about these will help you unlock the secrets of maps. This leaflet explains the main things you need to understand, especially when using Ordnance Survey Explorer maps at 1:25 000 scale.

Maps can also help you in your geography, history, environmental science and citizenship classes – but they can provide entertainment, too. Find out how by discovering the games, quizzes and competitions featured on the web at www.ordnancesurvey.co.uk/mapzone.

A guide for parents, guardians and carers

Developing young people
for life and work

DofE.org

What is the DofE?

Anyone aged 14-24 can do a DofE programme at one of three progressive levels which, when successfully completed, leads to a Bronze, Silver or Gold Duke of Edinburgh's Award. There are four sections to complete at Bronze and Silver level and five at Gold. With assistance from DofE Leaders, your child will select and set objectives in each of the following areas:

Volunteering

Giving service to individuals or the community. This cannot be for a business or family member but can be for a charity or for a not-for-profit organisation. Examples:

- Raising money for a charity
- Being a football coach
- Helping at an after-school club.

Physical

Improving in an area of sport, dance or fitness activities.

- Joining a local athletics club
- Improving their martial arts skills
- Taking weekly dance lessons.

Skills

Developing practical and social skills and personal interests.

- Learning how to juggle
- Improving musical skills
- Build a website, blog or video diary.

Expedition

Planning, training for and completing a supervised adventurous journey as one of a team in the UK or abroad. It can be by canoe, kayak or boat; on foot; on horseback; by wheelchair or by bicycle.

Residential

At Gold level, participants must do an additional fifth Residential section, which involves staying and working away from home doing a shared activity.

- Assisting at a kids' summer camp
- Helping deafblind young people and adults to enjoy a holiday in France
- Joining a conservation camp.

I've found everyone who has completed their DofE has become more confident and shown a maturity that makes them stand out and helps them progress in their careers.”

DEAN LIGHTWOOD, HEAD OF OPERATIONS, LLOYDS BANKING GROUP

Where to do their DofE?

DofE programmes are delivered under licence by over 3,500 partners (Licensed Organisations) who offer them through DofE centres from youth clubs, voluntary organisations, schools and colleges to young offender institutions and businesses.

To find out where the DofE is run near you, ask your child's teacher or youth leader, or go to DofE.org/where.

Why should they do their DofE?

When your child does their DofE programme they'll develop the skills and attitudes they need to become more rounded, confident adults. Qualities that colleges, universities and employers are attracted to. So when you support your child's pursuit of their Duke of Edinburgh's Award, you're investing in their future. You can expect to see your child develop in the following areas as they work through their DofE programme:

- Self-belief and self-confidence
- A sense of identity
- Initiative and a sense of responsibility
- A real awareness of their strengths
- New talents and abilities
- The ability to plan and use time effectively
- Learning from and giving to others in the community
- Forming new friendships
- Problem solving, presentation and communication skills
- Leadership and teamworking skills.

Costs

To do their DofE programme, participants pay a nominal fee for a Welcome Pack, which includes their DofE Participation Place. This fee is their contribution towards the charity's costs in running their DofE programme.

They will receive:

- A Welcome Pack
- Their online eDofE account
- Their DofE Card
- A certificate and badge on approval of their Award.

The fee represents a very small proportion of the overall cost of participation/running the DofE, which is supported by the funds raised by the DofE charity. For more information and the current cost of participation see DofE.org/cost.

How long does it take?

To achieve an Award young people must show persistence, commitment and personal development.

It's not something that can be achieved through a short burst of enthusiasm in one weekend. However, they may fit their DofE activities around their school, college or work commitments, carrying them out in their own personal time.

They can be done partly as one of a range of options in supported/core time or as part of an after-school or lunchtime programme. They may choose to use something they are already doing as a DofE activity – or go for something completely new. Each progressive level demands more time and commitment from participants. There is no real time limit when it comes to completing a DofE programme.

As long as they are under 25 years old when they complete all their activities in their programme, they're free to work at a pace that they're comfortable with to achieve their Award.

This chart shows the minimum time participants must do their programmes for. Whilst timescales are given in months, participants need to give a regular commitment averaging at least an hour a week during this time.

Bronze (14+) Those who aren't 14 yet but are in the school year in which their peer group turn 14 may be able to start a Bronze DofE programme.
Volunteering	Physical	Skills	Expedition
3 months	3 months	3 months	Plan, train for and complete a 2 day, 1 night expedition
Participants must also undertake a further three months in the Volunteering, Physical or Skills section.
Silver (15+) Those who aren't 15 yet, but are in the school year in which their peer group turn 15 may be able to start a Silver DofE programme.
Volunteering	Physical	Skills	Expedition
6 months	One for 6 months / one for 3 months		Plan, train for and complete a 3 day, 2 night expedition
If participants haven't achieved their Bronze Award they must undertake a further 6 months in Volunteering or the longer of their Physical or Skills section.
Gold (16+)
Volunteering	Physical	Skills	Expedition	Residential
12 months	One for 12 months / one for 6 months		Plan, train for and complete a 4 day, 3 night expedition	Undertake a shared activity in a residential setting away from home for 5 days and 4 nights
If participants have not achieved their Silver Award they must undertake a further 6 months in Volunteering or the longer of their Physical or Skills section.

Supervision

All DofE Leaders and Expedition Supervisors undergo checks and training through their Licensed Organisation to ensure young people have access to a high quality programme.

However, given the scope and breadth of DofE programmes, your child may choose to undertake activities that are not directly managed or organised by their group, centre or Licensed Organisation (i.e. at their local gym or conservation group). If this is the case, you, as their parent/guardian/carer, are responsible for ensuring that the activity is properly managed and insured, and that the adults are suitably qualified and checked.

DofE Leaders are sensitive to all participants' individual cultural, religious, physical and other requirements. Consequently, they can organise activities suitable for participants' needs and schedule them around important religious events etc. as appropriate.

Approved Activity Providers (AAPs)

The DofE licenses a range of organisations that provide expedition, volunteering and residential opportunities for participants. Young people can find a list of these, and 'open expeditions' run by the DofE, at DofE.org/finder.

Insurance

The DofE provides limited personal accident insurance which covers payment of a certain benefit(s) in the event of a participant or adult helper sustaining accidental bodily injury whilst taking part in an approved DofE activity. As a condition of their licence, each Licensed Organisation must also arrange Public Liability Insurance, which will cover any claims against them for injury or damage caused to, or by, young people and adults doing a DofE programme.

However, please note that the insurance does not provide cover for any personal belongings or equipment damaged or lost whilst doing a DofE activity. It will also not cover your child for any injury or damage caused to them whilst undertaking an activity arranged by you with an external organisation, you will need to check what cover is provided by the activity provider. For more information regarding insurance, please visit DofE.org/go/insurance.

The welcome pack and eDofE

Once they've chosen to start their DofE, your child will be sent their sign in details for eDofE (our online record keeping system) and a Welcome Pack which includes their...

- Programme information
- Expedition kit guide and discount card
- Assessor Guidance and Report cards booklet

Using eDofE and/or the Assessor's Report cards, participants have to prove what they've done for each of their sectional activities. They can upload their evidence on to eDofE by scanning in their signed Assessor's Report cards (or their Assessor can complete their report online), as well as pictures of them doing their activities, signed notes from their Assessor, movies... anything they can think of to prove their hard work!

The DofE Leader would need to approve the choice of Assessor before the activity is started. The Assessor may not be a member of the participant's immediate family.

Their Leader will then sign off each section as and when they have proved their commitment to their activities for the necessary time period. Your child's Licensed Organisation will approve their final Award and arrange a local presentation. At Gold level, they will receive an invitation to a national presentation.

For advice on expedition kit, plus details of discounts and offers for DofE participants, see DofE.org/shopping.

When my son joined the DofE group, he quickly found like-minded boys and made some really good mates as they trained and worked together as a team. He's now really motivated at school and has a new lease of life!”

JAYNE MAYTHORPE, PARENT

Can you help?

Whatever activities your child has chosen to pursue for their DofE programme, they will need your support and guidance to help them through. You may also need to encourage them to keep their eDofE pages up-to-date.

You may feel that you have other skills to offer. In which case, why not volunteer with your local DofE group?

You don't need special qualifications to be a DofE helper – from giving guidance and advice or training and assessing young people's progress, to driving a minibus or helping with administration, there's a role for everyone.

Each organisation will undertake appropriate safeguarding checks of all adults working with young people.

You could also fundraise to support your local DofE group, other more disadvantaged groups in your area, or for the DofE charity nationally.

Employers know that the DofE turns young people into great employees... it is as relevant today as it was 50 years ago. The DofE is a great way for young people to differentiate themselves and develop the maturity needed to do well at work.”

A range of clothing and other merchandise is available from DofE.org/shopping

The aim of the Expedition section:

To inspire young people to develop initiative and a spirit of adventure and discovery by planning, training for and completing an adventurous self-sufficient journey as part of a team. Participants choose where and how they want to do their expedition.

Before an expedition – DofE Supervisors/Assessors must ensure the appropriate parameters are in place:

All participants must be within the qualifying age of the programme level and at the same Award level (i.e., not have completed the same or higher level of expedition).

There must be between four and seven participants in a team (eight for modes of travel which can be used by two people at once e.g., tandem bikes, open canoes).

The expedition must be of the correct duration and meet the minimum hours of planned activity.

Bronze: A minimum of 2 days, 1 night; 6 hours of planned activity each day.

Silver: A minimum of 3 days, 2 nights; 7 hours of planned activity each day.

Gold: A minimum of 4 days, 3 nights; 8 hours of planned activity each day.

All expeditions must be supervised by an adult (the Expedition Supervisor) who is able to accept responsibility for the safety of the team.

Assessment must be by an Accredited Assessor. At Bronze level only, the Assessor may also be the Expedition Supervisor.

Participants must be adequately trained to safely complete an expedition in the environment in which they will be operating.

Bronze: Teams must complete the required training.

Silver: Teams must complete the required training and a practice expedition of a minimum 2 days, 2 nights.

Gold: Teams must complete the required training and a practice expedition of a minimum 2 days, 2 nights.

LIMITS

Planning an expedition – participants must plan how they're going to do their expedition:

Team Goal	Expeditions must have a clearly defined team goal – this could be researching an area of interest, contributing to a community action project, or developing soft skills.
Environment	The environment chosen must become progressively more challenging through the award levels – environments could include rural, urban or restricted spaces.
Accommodation	Accommodation should be by camping or other simple self-catering accommodation e.g., bunkhouses.
Time of year	Expeditions will usually take place between the end of March and the end of October. There should be a reasonable gap between the practice and qualifying expeditions.
Mode of travel	Participants must choose an appropriate mode of travel for the environment they'll be journeying through. Journeying must be by participants' own physical effort, although mobility aids may be used where appropriate to the needs of the participant.
Food	Participants must plan an appropriate expedition menu, including cooking and eating a substantial hot meal each day (optional on the final day).

On expedition – Supervisors/Assessors should ensure:

Participants must behave responsibly with respect for their team members, Leaders, landowners, the public and animals, and must understand and adhere to the Countryside, Scottish Outdoor Access, Highway and Water Sports Codes (as appropriate).

Expeditions must be unaccompanied and self-sufficient. The team must be properly equipped, and supervision must be carried out remotely, considering what is reasonably practicable for participants and ensuring their welfare is paramount.

Participants must actively participate in a debrief with their Assessor at the end of the expedition and, at Silver and Gold level, a presentation must be delivered after the expedition.
